

SOCIALWORK CAREERS

A Brown Bag Lunch Series on MSW Career Development

Spring 2017 : Wednesdays 12-1:15PM
536 George St, Room 209, New Brunswick

Resumes

Feb 22 2017

One job can attract hundreds of resumes. How do you make sure yours impresses? How do you weave in your paid and volunteer and internship experiences, and make it all digestible and visually appealing? We cover key tips for crafting effective resumes for social work job seekers.

Cover Letters

Mar 1 2017

A cover letter tells the story of how your resume makes you the perfect fit for the job you're applying for. It can actually be the most important part of your application. Learn strategies for how to organize and write this key pitch about yourself.

Interviewing

Mar 29 2017

Congrats, you've gotten an interview! Now what? How do you talk about what a great fit you are for the job? What do you emphasize? How do you answer those hard questions? We'll discuss how to prepare for interviews and what to prioritize.

Benefits

Apr 5 2017

Health insurance plans? Retirement savings options? Along with a salary, a job offer usually includes a benefits package. Learn what they're made up of, and how to best navigate the options for you and your family's interests.

Please RSVP @

<https://socialworkcareers.eventbrite.com>

Questions? Please email

studentaffairs@ssw.rutgers.edu

About the facilitator

Dr. Anna Haley-Lock is Associate Professor at Rutgers School of Social Work. Dr. Haley-Lock's research focuses on "upstream" strategies for changing workplaces and policies to promote worker, family, and community socioeconomic wellbeing.

Presented by
SSW Office of Student Affairs

Can't make it to New Brunswick?
Participate via livestream
(more details to come.)