

Blanche Grosswald Memorial Lecture

featuring Senator Joseph F. Vitale

Wednesday, October 25, 2017

12 to 2 p.m.

Brower Commons

145 College Avenue, New Brunswick Campus

This year's lecture features New Jersey Senator Joseph F. Vitale (D) who serves as Chair for the Senate's committee on Health, Human Services and Senior Citizens, as well as the Vice-Chair for the Labor committee. Senator Vitale's presentation will illuminate health care policy issues at the federal and state levels of government.

Dr. Grosswald's research focused on work and family, women, social justice and human rights. Her work engaged many fields of study, including social welfare, sociology, public health, law, labor, and health policy. This memorial lecture aims to honor her broad vision.

Visit socialwork.rutgers.edu/events for more information.

RUTGERS

School of Social Work