I. Catalog Course Description

This is the first half of two required sequential courses in the Professional Foundation Year. It provides the basic knowledge and skills as a foundation for the advanced practice curriculum. Using a problem-solving model in an ecological perspective, the course prepares students to apply a generalist practice perspective to systems of all sizes and levels. Essential values, concepts, and ethical considerations within a human rights perspective as they pertain to generalist social work practice are explored.

II. Course Overview

This course approaches social work practice from a generalist perspective using a problem-solving process, which engages individuals, families, small groups, organizations and the community, in the larger society. The problem-solving process is combined with an ecological and human rights perspective. Practice content includes the following skills: developing professional relationships; collecting and assessing data; defining problems; using appropriate practice research knowledge; goal-setting; planning and contracting; identifying alternative interventions; selecting and implementing appropriate courses of action; using empirical measurement to monitor and evaluate outcomes; and concluding intervention. Emphasis is given to facilitative and constraining effects of the sociocultural context surrounding practice. Special attention is given to human diversity and populations-at-risk, such as persons of color, women, and gays and lesbians.

III. Place of Course In Program

This is the first of two generalist practice foundation courses. The course is co-requisite with Field Placement I, and is a prerequisite for both Social Work Practice II and Field Placement II. Students should discuss any issues that arise in their field placement with their field instructor and the office of Field Education.
IV. Program Level Learning Goals and the Council of Social Work Education’s Social Work Competencies

The MSW Program at Rutgers is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). CSWE’s accreditation standards can be reviewed at www.cswe.org.

In keeping with CSWE standards, the Rutgers School of Social Work has integrated the CSWE competencies within its curriculum. These competences serve as program level Learning Goals for the MSW Program and include the following. Upon completion of their MSW education students will be able to: demonstrate ethical and professional behavior; engage in diversity and difference in practice; advance human rights and social, economic and environmental justice; engage in practice informed research and research informed practice; engage with individuals, families, groups organizations and communities; intervene with individual, families, groups organizations and communities; and evaluate practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities.

Competency 6: Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
Social workers understand that engagement is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of social work practice with, and on behalf of, diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers value the importance of human relationships. Social workers understand theories of human behavior and the social environment, and critically evaluate and apply this knowledge to facilitate engagement with clients and constituencies, including individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers understand strategies to engage diverse clients and constituencies to advance practice effectiveness. Social workers understand how their personal experiences and affective reactions may impact their ability to effectively engage with diverse clients and constituencies. Social workers value principles of relationship-building and inter-professional collaboration to facilitate engagement with clients, constituencies, and other professionals as appropriate. Social workers:

- apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks to engage with clients and constituencies; and
- use empathy, reflection, and interpersonal skills to effectively engage diverse clients and constituencies.

Competency 7: Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
Social workers understand that assessment is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of social work practice with, and on behalf of, diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers understand theories of human behavior and the social environment, and critically evaluate and apply this knowledge in the assessment of diverse clients and constituencies, including individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers understand methods of assessment with diverse clients and constituencies to advance practice effectiveness. Social workers recognize the implications of the larger practice context in the assessment process and value the importance of inter-professional collaboration in this process. Social workers understand how their personal experiences and affective reactions may affect their assessment and decision-making. Social workers:

- collect and organize data, and apply critical thinking to interpret information from clients and constituencies;
- apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in the analysis of assessment data from clients and constituencies;
- develop mutually agreed-on intervention goals and objectives based on the critical assessment of strengths, needs, and challenges within clients and constituencies; and
- select appropriate intervention strategies based on the assessment, research knowledge, and values and preferences of clients and constituencies.

Competency 8: Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities Social workers understand that intervention is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of social work practice with, and on behalf of, diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers are knowledgeable about evidence-informed interventions to achieve the goals of clients and constituencies, including individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers understand theories of human behavior and the social environment, and critically evaluate and apply this knowledge to effectively intervene with clients and constituencies. Social workers understand methods of identifying, analyzing and implementing evidence-informed interventions to achieve client and constituency goals. Social workers value the importance of inter-professional teamwork and communication in interventions, recognizing that beneficial outcomes may require interdisciplinary, inter-professional, and inter-organizational collaboration. Social workers:

- critically choose and implement interventions to achieve practice goals and enhance capacities of clients and constituencies;
- apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in interventions with clients and constituencies;
- use inter-professional collaboration as appropriate to achieve beneficial practice outcomes; negotiate, mediate, and advocate with and on behalf of diverse clients and constituencies; and
- facilitate effective transitions and endings that advance mutually agreed-on goals.

Assessment of Competencies/Program Level Learning Goals: This course focuses on providing you with the knowledge, skills, and values for you to engage, assess, and intervene with individuals, families, groups, and communities. In order to assess your attainment of these three competencies, TWO (2) INTEGRATIVE CASE STUDY ASSIGNMENTS, due between the mid-term and end of the course period, are assigned. In these integrative assignments, you are required to write a scholarly paper (submitted in several sections, in which you present a case study from your field placement setting. In these assignments, you are assessed on your beginning ability to apply theories learned in this course and use the skills of engagement, assessment, goal setting, intervention, and evaluation.

V. Course Learning Goals

Course level learning goals primarily relate to the aforementioned competencies/program level learning goals as the course addresses policy analysis skills and competencies as well as addresses human rights and social, economic and environmental justice through the study of the evolution of the US welfare state and the emergence of the social work profession.

(Note: Faculty, please add brief statement that highlights the alignment of the course... learning goals with the competencies/program level learning goals above)

Upon completion of the course students will have beginning competence to

1. Identify the purposes and objectives of social work practice.
2. Identify how personal and professional values and ethics direct and guide social work practice.
4. Apply principles of engagement to direct social work practice.
5. Demonstrate basic skills in the assessment process.
6. Articulate and apply core practice theories to assessment.
7. Use a person-in-environment perspective to recognize and appraise the effects of context on practice at the micro, mezzo, and macro level.
8. Identify and apply change strategies to direct social work practice.

VI. School of Social Work Mission Statement and School Wide Learning Goals

The mission of the School of Social Work is to develop and disseminate knowledge through social work research, education, and training that promotes social and economic justice and strengths individual, family, and community well-being, in this diverse and increasingly global environment of New Jersey and beyond.

School Wide Learning Goals: Upon graduation all students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior;
2. Engage Diversity and Difference in Practice; and
3. Engage, Assess, and Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

VII. Required Texts and Readings

Other required readings (separate from textbook) are available through the Rutgers University Library “Reading List” that is integrated into your Canvas course. To find your readings:

Click on the “Reading List” tab in the Canvas navigation bar to the left hand side of the course. Please note: this list contains links to articles and other required readings separate from the textbook (if applicable). Please follow the syllabus and/or Canvas Readings and Resources page in each module for more specific required readings and resources for each week (including textbook/media).
For further instructions please click here for a video tutorial

VIII. Course Attendance and Participation Policies

Classrooms are temporary social systems where every member has a responsibility for creating the context for discussion, collaboration, and exploration. Regularity, reliability, and an open, curious, stance are core principles for forming supportive relationships with clients and direct social work practice. These principles also inform the development of an effective classroom.

Students are expected to attend class regularly and to complete readings on a timely basis so that they can participate effectively in class discussions. More than three absences may result in the failure of the class. Students are expected to arrive to class on time and stay for the entire duration of class. More than 3 late arrivals or early departures may result in grade deductions.

Each of you has an important voice to contribute to the discussion and students are expected to take a leadership role in class discussion. Please bring your case material to class as a way to integrate the theories being discussed and your on-the-ground experience. All discussions in the class are CONFIDENTIAL and will remain in the class.

Student behavior in this course must comply with the university’s code of conduct. The entire code of conduct can be attained from Student Judicial Affairs Office or on-line at http://studentsconduct.rutgers.edu/university-code-of-student-conduct. Students should be aware that violations of academic integrity, for example plagiarism of any kind, would result in expulsion from the program.

Please do not use cell phones or laptops during class, unless they are required for your learning. You will be dismissed from class if you use these devices for surfing the internet or answering email. This course is meant to be a conversation. Electronic devices easily disrupt attention and interrupt the learning process.

Students are required to take the examinations on the designated dates. No make-up examinations will be given unless a physician has certified, in writing, that you are unable to take the examination.

All assignments for this class must reflect social work values and ethics including awareness of issues of diversity and economic and social injustice. All written work must be typed. Late assignments will not be accepted, unless the student has made arrangements prior to the assignment due date. The professor reserves the right to reduce the letter grade for late assignments. All written assignments must follow APA format. The professor reserves the right to reduce the letter grade for any assignment that does not confirm to APA format.

IX. Assignments and Grading

SSW MSW Grading Scale: Below is the grading scale for the MSW program

To ensure that each student is successfully able to complete the course expectations, specific issues with your field setting need to be taken directly to your respective field supervisor, field liaison and/or field education office representative. If there are concerns about a student being able to successfully complete the assignments of the course, your instructor for your practice course reserves the right to contact the field office and/or your field instructor to determine if you are able to carry out your assignment. These are educational issues that directly impact a student’s ability to meet the educational objectives for this course. A student’s course evaluation is based on the following 6 required assignments:

1. ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION (10% of final grade): Students will be graded based on the following for attendance and participation: (1) being an active participant during class lecture and/or within online discussion boards, (2) complete Mindtap ('Helper Studio') assignments and Agency Self-Assessment of Trauma-Informed Care activity before the due date, and (3) adherence to expectations as described in Section VIII of the syllabus.

   For every Mindtap ('Helper Studio') assignment and Agency Self-Assessment of Trauma Informed Care activity, you have two weeks to complete it. The start and due dates are as follow:

   - Chapter 2 Helper Studio: Rosetta [Start during Week 2 class. Due by Friday of Week 3.]
   - Chapter 4 Helper Studio: Keeping Confidence: Suicide [Start during Week 4 class. Due by Friday of Week 5.]
   - Agency Self-Assessment of Trauma-Informed Care [Start during Week 8 class. Due by Friday of Week 9.]
   - Chapter 13 Helper Studio: Tynesha Case Study [Start during Week 10 class. Due by Friday of Week 11.]
   - Chapter 11 Helper Studio: Diversity/Multicultural: Ferguson [Start during Week 12 class. Due by Friday of Week 13.]
   - Chapter 16 Helper Studio: Diversity: Human Rights [Start during Week 14 class. Due by Friday of Week 15.]

2. ENGAGEMENT REFLECTION (20% of final grade) Due week 6. This assignment integrates the theories of engagement you have read about with your direct practice work. In 3-5 pages, please describe a situation in your field placement that required engagement skills. Identify what engagement strategies you used. Please reflect on this process. What went well? What didn’t work well? Knowing what you know now, what would you do differently? How did you apply principles of belief bonding (if appropriate) to your choices. You may include a process recording (typed) to illustrate your examples.

3. MIDTERM EXAM (25% of final grade): This is a 50 question quiz based on content from lectures and textbook. The mid-term will be scheduled around week 8 or 9.

4. INTEGRATIVE ASSIGNMENT 1 – ASSESSMENT (20% of Final Grade): Due week 10 or 11. Instructors, please note that students should have you approve the client or client system they intend to use for this assignment. This assignment focuses on the assessment process for a case you select. Please describe the client or client system, including referral information, presenting problem, underlying problem and problem-for-work. Please also include a description of client strengths and how the client or client system’s positionality (e.g. race, ethnicity, sex, sexuality, income) might be impacting the presenting problem or the problem for work. Please describe how ethics and values may also factor into the assessment process. Please also describe how your positionality may be influencing your assessment. To support your points please include a description of one critical incident or encounter that has shaped your thinking. See detailed instructions.

INTEGRATIVE ASSIGNMENT 2 – CASE CONSTRUCTION (25% of Final Grade): Due week 14 or 15. This assignment builds on your assessment and problem identification to guide your case construction and case theory. Drawing on your work in the first integrative assignment please describe your case theory. Identify at least one practice theory that informs your thinking and describe that theory and how it applies to the specific facts of your case. Please also describe an alternate case theory that you have considered but do not believe fits the case. Describe why you have chosen one theory over the other. Include a reflection on how your personal orientation and positionality impact your case theory construction. In the final section of the paper please establish one goal and three objectives to meet that goal. See detailed instructions.

5. Throughout the semester, students may also be assigned short homework assignments at the instructor’s discretion.

More detailed instructions about assignments will be distributed directly to students at the beginning of the semester.

X. Academic Resources

Library Research Assistance

Dr. Karen Hartmann is the social work the social work librarian on the New Brunswick Campus  karen.hartman@rutgers.edu  p. 848-932-6104; Natalie Borisovets is at Newark, Dana Library natalieb@rutgers.edu 973-353-5909; Katie Anderson is at Camden, Robeson Library: Katie.anderson@rutgers.edu 856-225-2830. They are all available to meet with students.

Writing Assistance

Success in graduate school and within the larger profession of social work depends on strong writing skills. Several resources are available to help students strengthen their professional and academic writing skills. Writing assistance is available to all MSW students as described below.

New Brunswick Campus

All MSW SSW students (New Brunswick, Camden, Newark, Intensive Weekend, online and blended) are eligible to access writing assistance at the New Brunswick Learning Center. Online tutoring may also be available. https://rlc.rutgers.edu/student-info/group-and-individual-academic-support/writing-coaching

Newark Campus

The Newark writing center is available for MSW students on the Newark campus by appointment. http://www.ncas.rutgers.edu/writingcenter

Camden Campus

The Camden learning center provides writing assistance for MSW students on the Camden campus. http://learn.camden.rutgers.edu/writing-assistance

Additional Online Resources

APA Style

All students are expected to adhere to the citation style of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 7th edition (2020). It can be purchased at APA Manual 9th Edition. The Purdue OWL website also provide assistance with APA style https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/

Purdue OWL Mechanics, grammar, organization https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/section/1/

Email Etiquette for Students

https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/694/01/

XI. Course Evaluation

Rutgers University issues a survey that evaluates both the course and instructor. This survey is completed by students toward the end of the semester, and all answers are confidential and anonymous. The instructor may also choose to conduct a mid-point evaluation.

XII. Academic Integrity

As per Rutgers University Academic Integrity Policy, “Students are responsible for understanding the principles of academic integrity and abiding by them in all aspects of their work at the University. Students are also encouraged to help educate fellow students about academic integrity and to bring all alleged violations of academic integrity they encounter to the attention of the appropriate authorities.” All SSW students are expected to review and familiarize themselves with the RU Academic Integrity Policy in its’ entirety.

As per Rutgers University Academic Integrity Policy, “The principles of academic integrity require that a student: make sure that all work submitted in a course, academic research, or other activity is the student’s own and created without the aid of impermissible technologies, materials, or collaborations; properly acknowledge and cite all use of the ideas, results, images, or words of others; properly acknowledge all contributors to a given piece of work; obtain all data or results by ethical means and report them accurately without suppressing any results inconsistent with the student’s interpretation or conclusions; treat all other students ethically, respecting their integrity and right to pursue their educational goals without interference. This principle requires that a student neither facilitate academic dishonesty by others nor obstruct their academic progress; uphold the ethical standards and professional code of conduct in the field for which the student is preparing.”

Students should review all types of Academic Integrity Violations per the RU Academic Integrity Policy. Below are some of the more common violations, as articulated in Rutgers University Academic Integrity Policy:

“Plagiarism: Plagiarism is the use of another person’s words, ideas, images, or results, no matter the form or media, without giving that person appropriate credit. To avoid plagiarism, a student must identify every direct quotation using quotation marks or appropriate indentation and cite both direct quotation and paraphrasing properly according to the accepted format for the particular discipline or as required by the instructor in a course. Some common examples of plagiarism are: Copying word for word (i.e. quoting directly) from an oral, printed, or electronic source without proper attribution: Paraphrasing without proper attribution, i.e., presenting in one’s own words another person’s written words or ideas as if they were one’s own, regardless of the nature of the assignment; Incorporating into one’s work graphs, drawings, photographs, diagrams, tables, spreadsheets, computer programs, or other non-textual material from other sources, regardless of format, without proper attribution.”

“Cheating: Cheating is the use or possession of inappropriate or prohibited materials, information, sources, or aids in any academic exercise. Cheating also includes submitting papers, research results or reports, analyses, and other textual or visual material and media as one’s own work when others prepared them. Some common examples are: Prohibited collaboration: receiving research, programming, data collection, or analytical assistance from others or working with another student on an assignment where such help is not permitted; Copying another student’s work or answers on a quiz or examination; Using or having access to books, notes, calculators, cell phones, technology, or other prohibited devices or materials during a quiz or examination; Submitting the same work or major portions thereof to satisfy the requirements of more than one course without permission from the instructors involved; Preprogramming a calculator or other device to contain answers, formulas, or other unauthorized information for use during a quiz or examination.; Acquiring a copy of an examination from an unauthorized source before the examination; Having a substitute take an examination in one’s place; Submitting a purchased or downloaded term paper or other materials to satisfy a course requirement; Submitting as one’s own work a term paper or other assignment prepared, in whole or in part, by someone else.”
Any faculty member or academic administrator who becomes aware of a possible academic integrity violation must initiate a formal complaint with the Office of Student Conduct and the SSW’s Academic Integrity Facilitator (Laura Curran at lacurran@ssw.rutgers.edu). The AIF deciding the case (the “adjudicator”) shall notify the accused student of the allegation in writing or by electronic communication within fifteen working days of the time the faculty member becomes aware of the alleged violation.

Once the student has been notified of the allegation, the student may not drop the course or withdraw from the school until the adjudication process is complete. A TZ or incomplete grade shall be assigned until the case is resolved. For more information, see RU Academic Integrity Policy and Procedures for Adjudicating Academic Integrity Violations.

To promote a strong culture of academic integrity, Rutgers has adopted the following honor pledge to be written and signed on examinations and major course assignments submitted for grading: On my honor, I have neither received nor given any unauthorized assistance on this examination/assignment.

XIII. Disability Accommodation

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines.

If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus’ disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS web site at: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form.

XIV. Other Resources

Our school is committed to fostering a safe, productive learning environment. Title IX and our school policy prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, which regards sexual misconduct — including harassment, domestic and dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. We understand that sexual violence can undermine students’ academic success and we encourage students who have experienced some form of sexual misconduct to talk to someone about their experience, so they can get the support they need.

Confidential support and academic advocacy are available through the Rutgers Office on Violence Prevention and Victim Assistance, 732.932.1181, http://vpva.rutgers.edu. Services are free and confidential and available 24 hrs/day, 7 days a week.

Active Shooter Resources: Over the years, there has been an increase in the number of active shootings on campus. It is important that you know what to do in cases there is an active shooter on campus. Please go to this site to retrieve information that will reduce your personal risk in case of an active shooting on campus - http://rupd.rutgers.edu/shooter.php.
XV. COURSE OUTLINE

Asynchronous Mindtap activity

Chapter 2 Helper Studio: Rosetta

Week 4: Engagement: Belief-Bonding and Strengths-Based Interviewing

Learning Objectives:
• Identify counterproductive and positive communication patterns.
• Define and apply core skills of additive empathy, interpretation and confrontation.
• Define and apply principles of “belief-bonding.”

Reading

• Chapter 7. Eliminating Counterproductive Communication Patterns and Substituting Positive Alternatives (pp. 168-186)
UNIT III: CASE THEORY CONSTRUCTION AND PRACTICE THEORIES

Week 5: Case Theory Construction: Integrating the Micro and Macro in Assessment

Learning Objectives:
- Explain the process of case theory construction.
- Apply principles of case theory construction to case material

Reading

- Chapter 1: The social construction of social work theory (pgs. 1-29)
- Chapter 2: Evaluating social work theory (pgs.31-63)
- Chapter 3: Connecting theory and practice (pgs. 65-86)

Asynchronous Mindtap activity

Chapter 4 Helper Studio: Keeping Confidence: Suicide

Week 6: Integrating Theory and Practice: Psychodynamic Theory

Learning Objectives:
- Explain core principles of psychodynamic theory
- Apply core principles of psychodynamic theory to case assessment

Reading

Chapter 4: Psychodynamic Practice (pp.93-125)

- Part Two: Assessment (pp. 15-57).

No asynchronous Mindtap activity (Mid-semester check-in)

Week 7: Cognitive-Behavioral Theory

Learning Objectives:
- Define core principles of cognitive-behavioral theory
- Apply principles cognitive-behavioral theory to practice

Reading

- Chapter 6: Cognitive-Behavioral Practice (pp. 93-125)

No asynchronous Mindtap activity (Mid-semester check-in)

Week 8: Trauma-Informed Perspectives & Applications

Learning Objectives:
- Explain core principles of trauma-informed care
- Identify how complex trauma shapes behavior
- Apply principles of trauma-informed care to casework

Reading

Asynchronous activity
Agency Self-Assessment of Trauma-Informed Care

Week 9: Assessment with Individuals: Exploring Challenges and Strengths

MIDTERM

Learning Objectives:
- Be able to assess for client strengths and problems.
- Be able to assess for intrapersonal, interpersonal, and environmental issues.

Reading

- Chapter 8. Assessment: Exploring and Understanding Problems and Strengths (pp. 186-215)
- Chapter 9. Assessment: Intrapersonal, Interpersonal, and Environmental Factors (pp. 216-250)

- Chapter 4: Evidence for knowledge-guided assessments (pp. 93-129)

Asynchronous activity

Agency Self-Assessment of Trauma-Informed Care

Week 10: Intervention with Individuals: Planning, Contracting, and Goal-Setting

Learning Objectives:
- Identify process for developing goals and formulating a contract with clients
- Articulate how to plan and implement change-oriented strategies

Reading

- Chapter 12. Developing Goals and Formulating a Contract (pp. 312-362)
- Chapter 13. Planning and Implementing Change-Oriented Strategies (pp. 364-422)

- Chapter 8: Setting culturally relevant goals (pp. 106-122)

Asynchronous Mindtap activity

Chapter 13 Helper Studio: Tynesha Case Study
Week 11: Intervening with Individuals: Strategies to Enhance Change

Learning Objectives:
- Identify barriers to change
- Apply strategies for addressing barriers to change in casework
- Explain core principles of Motivational Interviewing and its role in addressing barriers to change.

Reading

  - Chapter 18. Managing Barriers to Change (pp. 535-566)
