RESEARCH & PRACTICE EXPERIENCE

2021 Postdoctoral Fellow, Centre for Gender Equity and Health, University of California San Diego

Leading three research projects that investigate the impact of intimate partner violence (IPV) on marital quality and mental health of couples in India; gendered impact of COVID-19 on women's physical and mental health in India; and longitudinal consequences of IPV among adults in California. Additional activities include grant writing, maintaining a database of measures on the EMERGE website, and data management.

2018-20 Postdoctoral Fellow, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

Indashyikirwa program to reduce intimate partner violence in Rwanda: Results from a cluster randomized clinical trial

Conceptualized and analysed data from a cluster randomized trial of an IPV prevention program in Rwanda resulting in a trial paper published at the Journal of Global Health. Synthesized data from multiple trials across Africa and Afghanistan to assess the differential impact of interventions across different sub groups and developed new measures of IPV to differentiate between cessation, reduction, and prevention in the evaluation of IPV interventions (published in Social Science & Medicine-Population Health). Other projects included testing the pathways through which the Indashyikirwa intervention worked in Rwanda using multiple mediation, the bi-directional relationship between IPV and depression, and IPV and relationship quality. Co-authored grant application that was funded by the SVRI/World Bank Marketplace.

2014-18 Principal Investigator, School of Social Work, Rutgers University

Like mother like daughter: Mothers' education and employment and investment in daughters' education in India

Conceptualized dissertation study, created a unique dataset with over 100,000 observations from multiple surveys. Analyzed quantitative data from two waves of national data from the India Human Development Survey (IHDS) 2005-06 & 2011-12 to assess the relationship between mothers' education and investment in daughters' education. Currently developing manuscripts for publication. Secured Margaret McNamara Education grant for this study.

2014-17 Research Assistant, Center for Prevention Science, School of Social Work, Rutgers University

Substance Abuse Prevention Research & Evaluation Workgroup

Assisted with research and evaluation activities for substance abuse prevention grants, including data management, qualitative and quantitative data analysis, and report writing. Trained doctoral students on conducting semi-structured interviews for an evaluation study.

2015-17 Graduate Research Assistant, School of Social Work, Rutgers University

Son preference among Chinese and Indian immigrant families in the U.S

Data: American Community Survey (ACS), Current Population Survey (CPS)

Co-conceptualized the study, conducted secondary data analysis on son preference among Indian, Chinese, Filipino immigrants. Co-authored manuscript published in Population Studies.

2014-15 Graduate Research Assistant, School of Social Work, Rutgers University

Violence against forced LGBT migrants in the U.S. and Canada

Coordinated data collection with non-profit organizations in the U.S. and Canada working with LGBT refugees and asylees. Conducted in-depth interviews in New York and Canada. Assisted with phenomenological analysis of qualitative data and co-authored manuscript published in Child Abuse & Neglect.

2016-17 Research Practicum, School of Social Work, Rutgers University

Data: Survey of Income and Program Participation (SIPP)

Engaged in all stages of this project, resulting in a manuscript published in the B.E. Journal of Economic Analysis & Policy. Tasks included conceptualizing gender differences in the relationship between educational credentials and labor market outcomes, measurement of predictor and outcome variables, data management and analysis and preparing the manuscript for submission.

2011-13 Project Coordinator, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, India

Implementation of the Prevention of Domestic Violence Act 2005 in four states in India

Conceptualized the study, developed tools for data collection, trained research staff in four states, supervised data collection for the Ministry of Women & Child Development, India.

Familial journeys towards acceptance of lesbian and gay family members

Engaged in all stages of this project, resulting in a manuscript published in the Indian Journal of Social Work. Designed the study, conducted in-depth interviews, participated in the analysis, and co-authored a successful grant application for the study.

2010-11 Research Officer, SNEHA (Society for Nutrition, Education, Health and Action)

Violence against women from marginalized communities in India, Nepal, & Bangladesh

Conducted in-depth interviews, developed survey tool, trained and managed research staff for survey data collection. Co-authored a manuscript published in Sage Open.

2010 Senior Program Associate, CEHAT (Centre for Inquiry in Health and Allied Theme),

Rape crisis counselling for victims of sexual assault in two public hospitals in Mumbai.

Followed up with the police and survivors on the status of sexual assault cases in the past three years. Created a database with details of survivors in SPSS.

2009 Associate Program Executive, SRUTI (Society for Rural, Urban and Tribal Initiatives),

Consulted with six peoples' movements in Orissa to increase women's leadership, conducted trainings on gender and leadership for both male and female workers in these movements.
