

top ten reasons to get a
VAWC certificate

RUTGERS

School of Social Work

1

Educational opportunities that focus on violence against women and children

2

Specialized coordination of field education placement process

3

Certificate on your transcript/resume is important for potential employers

4

Smaller community within the larger MSW community

5

Networking and other opportunities with professionals and VAWC alumni

6

Three scholarships available only to VAWC students

7

Relevant in variety of social work settings, including mental health, substance abuse, hospital settings, DCP&P and others

8

Opportunities to become involved with VAWC-related research positions

9

Celebration of your academic achievement during an end of the year colloquium

Physical certificate that will look great on your office wall!

Center on Violence Against Women & Children

<http://vawc.rutgers.edu>