

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

Center for Research
on Ending Violence

School of Social Work

Course Requirements for Certificate in Interpersonal Violence and Trauma (C-IVT)

- Violence and Abuse in Adulthood OR Violence and Abuse in Childhood
- Advanced Social Policy: Interpersonal Violence
- Two electives related to Interpersonal Violence and Trauma,

Examples of approved electives include:

- Violence and Abuse in Adulthood (if Childhood is taken as required course)
- Violence and Abuse in Childhood (if Adulthood is taken as required course)
- Clinical Social Work: Working with Survivors of Abuse and Trauma
- Clinical Social Work: Behavioral Health with Latinos
- Clinical Social Work with Families
- Clinical Social Work with Children
- Clinical Social Work with Adolescents
- Clinical Social Work: Health Care
- Trauma Specific Practice with Children and Families
- Sexual and Gender Diversity in Social Work
- Gender, Women, and Intersectional Social Justice
- Global Social Work and Social Development
- Social Work with Immigrants and Refugees
- Adolescents: Understanding Risk and Resilience
- Child Welfare Management

Center for Research on Ending Violence
Certificate in Interpersonal Violence and Trauma

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

Center for Research
on Ending Violence

School of Social Work

- Law and Social Work
- Play Therapy
- Reducing Drug Harm: Social Work Practice and Policy
- Chronic Illness & Disability
- Poverty, Inequality, Discrimination, and Public Policy
- Social Work with Loss Across the Lifespan
- Environmental Justice and Social Work
- Victimology (Criminal Justice)
- Violent Crimes (Criminal Justice)

Elective Course Guidelines – C-IVT Program

Coursework and assignments must focus on issues related to Interpersonal Violence and Trauma.

Rutgers SSW Study Abroad Programs may count as a C-IVT elective. If you're considering participating in a study abroad trip, please contact: vawcmsw@ssw.rutgers.edu or sms694@ssw.rutgers.edu to confirm whether it will meet your C-IVT elective requirements.

Other courses not listed may also count toward your elective requirement. For approval, please send the course description and syllabus to the email addresses above for review.

Center for Research on Ending Violence
Certificate in Interpersonal Violence and Trauma